MISS HEANEY'S ACADEMY,

MISS HEANEY'S ACADEMY,
Opposite Pres dent's Square, I strees, Washington, (house of Cot. Bonsford's, between the residences of Mrs. Gen. Macomb and Commodore Morris.)

M ISS HEANEY, of Bostan, Massachusetts, M Princ pal Instructress, respectfully invites the attention of her friends and parents and guardians interested, to the re-establishment of her Academy, hoping in their layor for the early entrance of the boarding and day-scholars she may receive, and for whom every arrangement is made to ensure, by her own unrematted attention, thorough instruction and improvement in elementary and elevated learning, with the best advantages of residence.

Miss Heaney's Academy being so eligibly placed in the quiet neighborhood of many well-known families near the President's House and the Departments, in the family residence many years of C.L. Bomford, spacious and convenient, with its large garden and pleasant scenery, is esteemed the most desirable in the vicinity for the charge Miss Heaney resumes in this city of the useful and liberal education of young ladies.

Employing her best abilities to make her aca Employing her best abilities to make her academy permanent in this community, and encouraged to trust that her task will ere long be favored by the support it bespeaks, resident instructresses and other professors of the highest skill and character will always be engaged for any required aid, while Miss Heaney, as Principal, will instruct her pupils individually in whatever pursuits of learning or accomplishments they may engage.

The government of these young ladies will be that of home education of daughters, of her early study and much experience in Miss Heaney's charge of pupils in Boston, Washington, and elsewhere; simply for the best individual improvement of the talents, moral and mental culture of such youth; regulations and order prescribed for them in this family mode of living, as of tuition, study, employment, and recreation, being those only which are due to ensure the entire welfare of daughters by maternal education and care.

Young ladies may thus be residents in Miss Hea-ney's Academy, having instruction for any acquire-ments desired exclusive of others, and may have that leisure and intercourse with society, to which the at-tention of parents, guardians, on Miss Heaney may be given.
